

Andy Blatt '92 was an outstanding running back for Greenville High School and Westminster College.

At Greenville Andy was a three-year letter winner in football, amassing 3,677 career rushing yards and 70 career touchdowns. His junior year Andy led the Trojans to a 7-3-1 record and was named 1st Team All Northwest Conference.

His senior year the Trojans went 10-2 winning the Northwest Conference Championship and finishing as District 10 runner-up to Hickory. In the championship game Blatt ran for 248 yards in a 21-20 losing effort. The Trojans went on in the state playoffs, ultimately claiming a #4 state ranking.

As a senior Andy rushed for 1,974 yards and 44 touchdowns. At one time he ranked #1 all-time in the PIAA for single season rushing touchdowns. Following his senior campaign Blatt received 1st Team Northwest Conference honors and was invited to play in the PA vs. OH Big 33 game. He recorded over 3,600 yards and 404 points during his high school career.

In track Andy was a 4-year letter winner, and as a senior anchored the 4 x 100 team (Blatt, Mowry, Porter, Bothun) to a school record, District 10 title and a 3rd place finish at States. He also placed 2nd in the 110 hurdles at Districts and 4th at States. In his "spare" time Andy lettered his freshman and sophomore seasons for the Trojan basketball team.

Andy matriculated to Westminster College where he finished his collegiate career with the second-highest rushing yardage total in school history. His totals of 811 carries for 4,627 yards still rank third all-time at Westminster while his career marks of 56 rushing touchdowns and 68 total touchdowns remain school records to this day. A two-time NAIA All-American (1994, '96), his top season came in 1994 as Andy rushed 313 times for a school-record 1,982 yards and 22 rushing touchdowns leading the Titans to the NAIA Division II National Championship. Over his career, Andy was a seven-time playoff MVP and he was the 1995 NAIA Pre-Season Player of the Year. He held the Titan single game rushing record until 2004 as he recorded a 243-yard effort against Lambuth (TN) in 1994. Andy received a number of NFL tryouts and an offer to play in the European Football League. He was inducted into the Titan Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

Andy and his wife, Valarie reside in Eighty-Four, PA with their sons Aiden and Ashton. Aiden is attending Westminster this fall as a freshman to continue his soccer career. Ashton will be a freshman at Central Catholic High School and plays football, basketball and track.
