Gary remains the GHS record holder in 110 Hurdles, 300 Hurdles, Long Jump, and 1600 Relay and currently holds the D10 record in the 300 Hurdles.

Following his high school career, Gary attended Slippery Rock University majoring in Special Education. He later completed his Associate in Specialized Technology Degree at New Castle School of Trades in earning recognition as Valedictorian of all trades. He also returned to GHS as a volunteer Track and Field coach from 2016 – 2019. Gary and his wife Daniell reside in Greenville and have two daughters, Kylee and Emily. He currently is employed as a Department Supervisor at Acutec Precision Aerospace, Inc. in Meadville, PA.

Reflecting upon his years as an athlete at GHS, Gary Stated, “My favorite memories from GHS include all the athletes I competed with and against, the exceptional coaches that helped me succeed – John Kokoski, Mark Hayes, Kelly Jones, and Brian Herrick – and most of all, being a part of the strong and rich tradition of Greenville High School Track & Field. It truly was an honor for me to represent my school and community.”
