

Barry Oman is a graduate of Hickory High School and earned his B. A. in Accounting at Thiel College and his Master of Business Administration at Youngstown State University.

He was employed at Werner Co. Inc. for 30 years where he held various corporate accounting positions and for seven additional years at CSI where he served as Cost and Inventory Accounting Manager.

In addition to his current role as Treasurer of the GASD Educational Foundation, Barry also serves on the Northern Mercer County Community Foundation board. He previously served on the GASD School Board for nine years and the Thiel College Board of Trustees for nine years.

Given his dedication to serving the local community, Barry is a member of the Greenville Rotary Club, the Restore Riverside Park organization, and the Good Shepherd Center Food Pantry

Barry resides in Greenville with his wife Linda, and they have two children, Ryan and Lauren, who graduated from GHS. Barry and Linda were inducted into the Greenville Area School District Distinguished Hall of Fame in 2025 in recognition of their longstanding legacy of service to the Greenville Community.

Barry believes that the goal of the GASD Educational Foundation is to support our school district and help our students reach their full potential.
