

Dennis Nichols is a 1966 graduate of Greenville High School. He earned his B. S. in Electrical Engineering at Bucknell University and his Master of Business Administration at the University of Pittsburgh.

Following retirement as a Professional Electrical Engineer, Dennis currently serves as President of NCS Consulting Services as a Business Executive with 35 years of managerial experience in the electrical and mechanical equipment manufacturing and electrical utility industries. He formerly served as Beaver County Commissioner, Brighton Township Supervisor, and Beaver Area School District Director.

A lifelong public servant, Dennis is Chairman of the Dolly Parton Imagination Library Advisory Committee; Vice President of the Greenville Area School District Educational Foundation; and Vice President of the Beaver Valley Innovation Hub. He previously served as an officer or board member with 15 nonprofit, government service, or community development organizations.

Dennis is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, the honor society of the collegiate schools of business and has served with a variety of organizations dedicated to improving business and economic development, education, and government.

Dennis and his wife, Madge (McCurdy) Nichols (a fellow GHS alumna) have resided in Beaver County, PA for 53 years and have three sons.

Regarding his service as Vice-President of the GASD Educational Foundation, Dennis shares that he is dedicated to improving the educational opportunities in the Greenville Area School District and supporting GASD students.